LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

EASTERN DATES TO FEB. 17.

THE SNOW BLOCKADE

Trains Passing East

C [illegible] Feb 16—11 30 P M —Bryan reports state that the first passenger train bound West passed there at 9 11 P M The train that left Ogden on the [illegible] is at Bitter Creek now but expected to start East to-night

EASTERN STATES

Domestic Scurrility

ALBANY N Y, Feb 17 —In the State Senate to day, Wood presented a preamble and resolution stating that President Grant has been guilty of receiving presents in common with the late clerk of the Senate, and that therefore the President should resign as the clerk had done

Ice in the Mississippi

St Louis Feb 17 —There was a report on change this noon that the ice gorge at Sulphur Springs, about twenty miles below here moved several hundred feet last night, but nothing definite is known It is a fact however that the river fell two inches here this morning and this gives color to the report The gorge here is still firm

Ohio Legislature.

Columbus Feb 14 —There was a fine prospect for a continuance of trouble over the Kemp Saylor contested election case again this morning. Objection was made to Saylor's voting on any motion, but an adjournment postponed trouble until that time There will probably be trouble at the time when the Democrats will make an attempt to correct the Senate Journal so as to make it declare that Saylor was not legally elected.

In the House to-day a bill was introduced to repeal the act of 1869 which authorized foreign corporation to lease railroads of Ohio

German Republican Action.

New York, Feb 17—The German Republican Committee of this city last evening adopted a resolution that while adhering to national nominations of the Republican party, they will act in municipal affairs with any party honestly working for reform

Steamboat Sunk

Philadelphia Feb 17 —The propeller City about sunk in the Delaware river this morning Mrs White stewardess was drowned

Woman Suffrage in Maine.

Augusta, Feb. 17 —In the House to day a bill was reported, and Monday assigned for its consideration, giving women the right to vote at the Presidential election

Grant Club in Boston

New York Feb 17 —The Boston Grant Club perfected its organization in Boston last night. A. H Rice is President and Doolittle, Secretary. Thirty four Vice Presidents including Governor Washburn ex Gov Claflin and all the Massachusetts delegation in Congress

A Stormy Passage at Sea.

A Halifax dispatch says the steamship [illegible] encountered terrific weather on her voyage from Bremen and had her bows carried away and her bridge broken Capt. Master was knocked about deck and badly cut in the face. One sailor fell from aloft and was killed

Death of a Notable Odd Fellow

The Grand Master of the Odd Fellows for the State of Ohio, aged fifty years and a very prominent man, died at Cincinnati at 4 o clock this morning.

The Republican National Convention

Baltimore Feb 17 —C C, Fulton, of National Republican Committee and who is known to have the full confidence of the President, says, in the American this morning that those holding offices should refrain from attending the Philadelphia Convention as delegates We disclaim any lack of appreciation of the office holders as a class; our purpose has been to prevent them from being present in position, as it would give their defamers an opportunity to avail themselves of the bo dollar clamor they have been so diligently at work to raise for the purpose of damaging Grant. If those holding commissions under him should be present in force his renomination would be held up as the work of the bread and butter brigade It seems to us so important and desirable that the membership of the convention should be direct from the people, that it is a token of surprise that any earnest friend of the Board holding office should not see the propriety of keeping away from it. Opponents to Grant's nomination would like to see many office holders in the convention It would be playing into their hands, and apparently sustaining their own repeated declaration that he is using exertions to secure the nomination Of one thing we are certain, they will please the President

Miscellaneous Eastern News.

The Flood at Albany and Santiam

Albany, Feb. 19 —The heavy rains of last week caused a rise in the Santiam river which yesterday afternoon reached to within eighteen inches of the great flood of 1862 The bridge of the Oregon and California Railroad withstood the test splendidly, but the south pier and first bent of piles are so damaged that trains will not be able to cross for some days The current was grandly powerful A large amount of drift and great trees snapped across the center pier like splinters The water has now receded six feet at Jefferson A portion of the Western Union telegraph line was destroyed but was again in working order to day noon The Jefferson ferry boat was swept away.

A number of bridges across the smaller streams and fences are gone No loss of life is yet reported The Willamette yet lacks one foot of the highest point reached here last year It is still rising and will exceed it somewhat

THE CATACAZY CORRESPONDENCE

We have already shown how Mr Catacazy, late Russian Minister at Washington, interfered unjustifiably in our national affairs and wrote newspaper articles slandering the principal members of the National Administration The Boston Advertiser thus summarizes the correspondence that preceded the dismissal of Catacazy The record is interesting The comments of the Advertiser are just and proper:

On the 16th June, 1871, that Mr Fish wrote to Mr. Curtin, our Minister to Russia an instruction which Mr Curtin was instructed to read to Prince Gortchakoff, to the effect that a change must be made in the head of the Russian legation in the United States, and expressing the hope that the intimation might be enough to occasion that change to be made. Prince Gortchakoff happened to be in Germany to remain till October Mr Curtin asked by telegraph whether he should [illegible] the instruction to Mr Westmann, the acting Minister or go to the Prince, and was instructed by Mr Fish to follow the former course

Mr Curtin saw Mr Westmann on the 19th of July, and thus reports the interview "Mr Westmann appeared to be much surprised, and treated the subject as very serious He said the

SUBJECT WAS TOO GRAVE

For his consideration [illegible] in the absence of Prince Gortchakoff and did not ask for a copy of your dispatch [i e instruction]. He asked me to await the return of the Prince which will be in the beginning of October, and added that he would not mention the subject to the Emperor, who will be here next week, in the absence of Prince Gortchakoff Mr Westmann said he would write Prince G. on the subject, and made memoranda of our conversation, which were no doubt intended for that purpose"

The report was received at the State Department on the 7th of August It was all polite and plausible enough, no doubt but the time was drawing near for the visit of the Russian Prince and accordingly Mr Fish telegraphed Mr. Curtin on the 18th, "Reason alleged not satisfactory, as communication with Minister of Foreign Affairs is open Decision important before the advent of the Prince, as the P[illegible] cannot be expected to receive as the principal attendant of his Highness, one who has been abusive of him, and is [illegible] unacceptable"

Mr Curtin telegraphs in reply from St Petersburg, 21th "Westmann, much excited, and said Grand Duke could not visit if no Minister from Emperor, and Catacazy could not be recalled and another appointed before his arrival, said

IT IS ALL INTRIGUE

To prevent visit of Grand Duke, after visit of Grand Duke, no doubt matters can be arranged"

Here it is plainly presented—Grand Duke with Catacazy—or no Grand Duke at all And if the reader has followed us in our appreciation of the matter he is ready to exclaim Very well, then say—No Grand Duke at all!

This is precisely what the administration said and it certainly is the most extraordinary thing, that on that very platform could be enacted a pageant which transformed Catacazy into the principal satellite of the Grand Duke in his visit

It was managed in this way On the 5th of September Mr Fish telegraphed Mr Curtin (it should be observed that the telegrams required to be re written in London and apparently took about a week in transmission between Washington and St Petersburg) "The suggestion of an intrigue UNWORTHY AND SHOULD HAVE BEEN REPELLED Catacazy has made himself personally offensive in conversation and by publications abusive of the President, and it is for this cause that his recall is asked. Every government has the right to have the representative of another power an acceptable person, and no government has the right to expect of another the retention of a representative who indulges in personal abuse of the head of the government to which he is accredited as Mr Catacazy has done You may read this to the vice-chancellor"

Now enters a most extraordinary incident of

RENEWED FALSEHOOD BY MR. CATACAZY

When Mr Curtin read the above to Mr Westmann he was met by the answer that Westmann also had his telegram from Catacazy, and Catacazy said that after his interview with Mr Fish, he (Catacazy) saw the President, who received him amicably, treated him with great courtesy, called him "My dear Catacazy," and that the trouble was all made up! The fact being, that Catacazy did go to Long Branch, sent in his card to the President who at first refused to see him, but that upon his averment that his visit was merely to pay his respects the President consented to see him for that purpose only; that the President was obliged to thwart his obvious attempt in violation of his pledge to turn the conversation to suit his personal views that the President received him on the whole, coolly and stiffly, and never called him "My dear Catacazy" in his life

But the falsehood served its purpose Mr Westmann said it would be impossible to recall this minister even if there were time to replace him before the arrival of the Grand Duke He had sent Catacazy's letter to the Emperor would send the substance of this conversation "The knowledge of Emperor thus admitted, (says Mr Curtin in his telegram to Mr Fish) "I asked the question, Do you speak for Emperor? He said yes The Emperor of Mr Catacazy until after visit of Grand Duke, and then will be recalled Said the Emperor most earnestly desired Grand Duke to go, and would recall him with much regret, but that must have a minister there when he arrives, and not time or propitious to change now"

The answer to which, September 20th, is this The President desiring to manifest his friendship for the Russian Government, and in view of the expected visit of the Grand Duke, and of the alleged impossibility of sending another minister to replace the one now here, in season to accompany the prince,

HAS DECIDED TO TOLERATE

the present minister until after the visit of the prince That minister will then be dismissed if not recalled. The President will not however formally receive Mr Catacazy except when he accompanies the prince—and can hold no conversation with him"

This was communicated to Mr Westmann and as our readers well know this was the basis on which Mr Catacazy accompanied the Grand Duke Alexis to the White House But the history of the matter does not close in this simple way although we are fain to believe that the Russian Government is not responsible for what followed the communication of Mr Fish's telegram last quoted

On the 22d of September, Mr Fish communicated to Mr Catacazy the substance of the decision that had thus been reached On the 4th of November Mr Fish received from Mr Catacazy a note in these terms "I have the honor to inform you that his majesty the Emperor, my august master has deigned to grant me at my very humble request, permission to go on leave of absence to St. Petersburg, as soon as his imperial highness, Monseigneur the Grand Duke Alexis, shall have finished his travels in the United States"

Mr Fish was prompt to inform Mr Catacazy that the terms of this announcement were regarded as

that his passports would be delivered to him earlier than was intended that is immediately after the Grand Duke's visit to the President and not at the conclusion of his tour in the United States, as had been designed On the 24th of November Mr Catacazy wrote formally (we hear no more of the "leave of absence") that "having been directed to wait on Monseigneur," etc, and that having received orders to sail immediately afterward for Russia" he that day transferred the management of the business of the imperial legation to Gen Gorloff

We have left ourselves no space to comment upon this extraordinary record but we are persuaded no comment is necessary A minister slanders our President in speech and in writing, interferes with our negotiations is detected in falsehood, and it takes four months to get rid of him, and then he manages to give to his dismissal something of the look of a promotion or preferment by his own Government

We have purposely omitted in our citations reference to matters not connected with the main point. It is a part of the ingenuity of what Mr Fish describes in one of his letters as the "diplomatic practices of Constantinople," to throw into every dispatch a great number of outside matters having really no connection with it, and it is plain that this Levantine minister indulged freely in this favorite artifice

in the [illegible] to bear out the theory, so industriously [illegible] on public [illegible], that the whole [illegible] arose out of [illegible] quarrels; and it is [illegible] that it could not have arisen in any such way

If M Catacazy's "august master" appears thus far to have in any degree supported his "dog of a subject" (the antithesis of terms [illegible] in this case not unfitting), it must be observed that the Emperor's request, on which hinges all that followed, was avowedly based on Catacazy's own letter, falsely describing his interview with the President. It is, of course, impossible to say what the Russian Government may do when it receives the full information now made public but there can be but one opinion throughout the civilized world, of [illegible] the behavior of their minister, and of respect for our firmness and patience in getting rid of him

Utah Troubles

JUDGE MCKEAN'S COURSE FULLY SUSTAINED

The course of Judge McKean yesterday in refusing to admit to bail Brigham Young and others, has won for him the admiration of a host here, and will doubtless [illegible] the [illegible] for him in the Eastern States Whatever might be the result to himself, the public will be forced to confess that Judge McKean is not only a man of character, but that there is integrity and not malice in his conduct That he was sent to Utah by the President of the United States, to do precisely that for which he has been aiming, there can be no doubt nor is there any doubt of this even in the minds of the Mormon leaders themselves They know full well that the charge of malice, and of [illegible] a persecuting spirit toward Mr Young and others, is what his Honor has not merited, He has been simply performing what he has [illegible] was his strict duty, for which he was sent by the Government, and for which, in [illegible], the Administration held him responsible for carrying out

This last act of our Chief Justice is proof of his conscientious course He will not [illegible] on his duty though his [illegible] would cost him his official [illegible] He [illegible] to be [illegible] by the instructions of the Attorney-General, and [illegible] now that the point to be [illegible] within the next five days [illegible] our Chief Justice is to fall or the Prosecuting Attorney. We said [illegible] ago that if the State [illegible], the Church party would go for the immediate removal of Judge McKean and the breaking up of all these [illegible] of prosecution There is no doubt in the minds of many folks, that the official trip of Mr Bates to Washington, had this same purpose in view No stone will be left unturned by Delegate Hooper and those who are assisting him, to win this point at least, though they have lost that of the State [illegible] to present appearances, for to have [illegible] set aside is a matter of life and death with the Mormon leaders They can even afford to wait for State admission, but cannot for the assurance of their own safety, which if now secured will be secured for all time These prosecutions once dropped, and it is almost certain that they will never be taken up again, not even that of the murdered Robinson Therefore, we may expect that all the influence which can be brought to bear to remove Judge McKean will be exerted to the last degree, and it must be confessed that the Mormon Church wields a vast amount of political influence in Washington, from various causes

But there [illegible] considerations, especially that of the [illegible] of the [illegible] of the important [illegible] in question, and that, too, by the [illegible] are [illegible] very strong reason why Judge McKean should not have entertained the motion which the Deputy Prosecutor was instructed by his principal, on the authority of the Attorney General, to make to the Court, at least until a more complete representation of the matter could be laid before the authorities at Washington We think this much is due to his Honor, for more than any other man he has been held responsible in the country, and by the Government, for his execution of the laws For him to have done anything different than that which he has done in the case would have been inconsistent, but if the Government has resolved upon itself taking the responsibility of backing out gracefully, there can be no help for it, but consistency demands that the authorities at Washington should have the case fairly before them, and justice demands that they should squarely assume the responsibility.

Improved Credit

[illegible] comes from [illegible] on the subject of [illegible] number [illegible] paper [illegible] claims a [illegible] for the bondholder Such [illegible] show that repudiation [illegible] or the [illegible] approach to it would still be [illegible] pleasing and acceptable to the Democrat[illegible] But the advocates of repudiation [illegible] sooner and they will always attempt to [illegible] by saying that the bonds must be redeemed in greenbacks But there is a little [illegible] in the way which they have [illegible] overlooked The law of February 25 18[illegible] authorizing the legal tenders and also [illegible] five twenties expressly states that the [illegible] shall be fundable in the latter at the [illegible] of the holder. Of course if the theory of the repudiators be correct the five twenties [illegible] be redeemed in precisely the sort of currency then authorized But that kind of currency is fundable in five twenties again immediately so that this pretended payment would result in a mere change of securities The bondholder whose five twenties were redeemed in legal tenders would have the right to reinvest in other five twenties and if these were redeemed in still other bonds of the same character till the legal tender became par with gold at which period probably the Government would not care to redeem them before maturity Thus this vicious circle of reasoning which the repudiators adopt can come to no conclusion There is no escape from the conviction that the Government must pay the bonds at last as it agreed to do, in gold But this whole subject has been argued and re-argued the people have passed upon it and have resolved to give no countenance to repudiation in any form The present immense debt of Great Britain was raised, as was our own, during a period of depreciated currency But nobody in Great Britain has ever seriously talked of paying it in that sort of currency, and the credit of that country though its resources are below ours is the best in the world To have England's credit we must adhere to England's plan of strict regard for pecuniary obligations, and cherish her holy horror of repudiation During the last three years we have done much toward silencing the voice of repudiators, and a greatly improved credit is the result already

Evils of the Present Mode of Assessment

The Governor of Minnesota, in his recent message to the Legislature of that State, made mention of an evil in the system of assessing property there, which corresponds exactly with an evil which exists in Oregon He showed that, to begin with the prevailing standards of valuation are absurdly and universally false and criminally violative of the requirements of the law In every town and county the appraisement of property by the Assessors for purposes of taxation is but a fraction as regards the aggregate return, of the real value, probably not averaging one-third of the real value More than that the standard of valuation is different in different counties, each one doing its best, because every other does its best, to lower its aggregate valuation in order to escape a portion of the State tax The result is a constant tendency to a reduced valuation and general inequalities as between counties upon which there is no check at all adequate to the correction of the evil

The essential vice of the system of assessing property in Oregon could not be more clearly stated than in the above presentation We have done our best to urge upon the Legislature during its last two sessions the necessity of providing a remedy But in the heat of party legislation the matter has been neglected We shall still urge it, and we trust that a Legislature may be chosen this year which will give the subject due attention There is no subject which more urgently requires it

A Proposed Liquor Law

Mention has already been made in the OREGONIAN of the proposition to consider at the State Temperance Convention at Salem, this week, a plan to give the electors of the State by precincts the privilege of voting at each general election upon the question whether ardent spirits may be sold at retail in their respective precincts or not In the California Legislature such a bill has been proposed The following section explains its general character and indicates what we understand to be wanted by the representatives of the Oregon Temperance Convention

If a majority of the voters of any city town township county, or city and county consolidated who vote on this question, vote "License—No" it shall be unlawful for any person or persons by agent or otherwise, in such township or city or county, or city and county consolidated voting "License—No" to sell, in any quantity intoxicating liquors to be drank in upon or about the building or premises where sold or to sell such intoxicating liquors to be drank in any adjoining room building or premises or place of public resort connected with said building and the giving away of intoxicating liquors or other shift or device to evade the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed and held to be an unlawful selling within the provisions of this Act and all places where intoxicating liquors are sold in violation of this Act shall be taken, held and declared to be common nuisances, and all rooms taverns eating houses bazaars, restaurants, groceries, coffee-houses cellars, or other places where intoxicating liquors are sold in violation of this Act shall be closed up and abated as public nuisances, upon conviction of the keeper thereof, who shall be punished as hereinafter provided

The communication on School Lands and Funds in Monday's issue of the DAILY OREGONIAN presents many considerations on the subject which are worthy of general attention The impolicy of placing the funds in the hands of the county authorities to loan is stated with strong arguments and the supposed or apparent conflict between the statutes and the Constitution on the subject is considered It must be admitted that strong arguments are offered tending to show that the Constitution never intended that the common School fund itself should be distributed among the counties for control and management

It has often been asserted by the Oregon City Enterprise that the Wallamet Locks Bill that passed in 1868 and approved by Gov Woods was identical with the one that was passed in 1870 and approved by Gov Grover It would be a mild term to say that this is a mistake for we have often pointed out the essential particulars in which the two bills differ and the Enterprise is well aware of the difference The first bill didn't suit the ring and hence they had the last one passed There would have been no reason for passing the second bill if the first one had been identical with it

Complaints of Detention of Pacific Mail

CHICAGO Feb 17 —A Washington special says the Postoffice Department has been in constant receipt lately of protests from various business interests in various parts of the country because of the detention of the California mails on the Union Pacific Railroad by the snow blockade Several parties in the Territories made propositions to the Postoffice Department to transfer the mails from delayed trains by wagons to points accessible to railroad communication for a reasonable compensation. One of these propositions met with much favor on the part of the postal authorities, who were about to take up with it when they were prevented through the influence of Oakes Ames Union Pacific Railroad President, who argued that such a course on the part of the Postal Department would be an official declaration that this road was not a reliable through route

The same special says the Commissioner of Internal Revenue is understood to have recommended to the Committee of Ways and Means a consolidated whisky tax of seventy cents per gallon

Reports of Southern Outrages

WASHINGTON Feb 18 —The Joint Select Committee will to morrow report on the condition of the late Insurrectionary States. Evidence taken in Washington and South Carolina is submitted as is also the reports of executive officers of the several States The testimony taken in other States is yet unprepared and will be submitted in a supplementary report. The committee says inquiry has been made into outrages non execution of laws, bad legislation, official incompetency and corruption. There is remarkable concurrency of testimony that courts and jurors administer justice between man and man in all ordinary cases, both civil and criminal, but the evidence is equally decisive that redress cannot be obtained against those who commit crimes in disguise and at night The reasons assigned were that identification is very difficult and almost impossible When this is practiced combinations and oaths of the order come in and release the culprits by perjury either upon the witness stand or in the jury box, and that by the terror inspired by their acts is the public intimidated, which, in many localities paralyzes the arm of the civil power

Numerous complaints are made of the incapacity of many of the interior magistrates In several States the Governors are charged with abuse of the pardoning power and partiality in favor of negroes, which will be considered subsequently The Committee indorse the effectiveness of the Ku Klux act of 1871 and recommend its continuance The results of the suspension of the habeas corpus in South Carolina show this, perhaps to be the only effective remedy for the suppression, and the Committee recommend an extension of power of the President to suspend the habeas corpus until the next session of Congress In view, also, of, a large number of indictments found in several courts which yet remain untried, and of evident encouragement derived from the belief that the present U S Courts cannot possibly reach and try them within any reasonable time, they recommend such an increase of judiciary of the United States in the districts or circuits shown to be affected by these disorders, as in the judgment of Congress will secure speedy and certain justice to be administered, and leave no hope of impunity to criminals by the laws delay They recommend the removal of political disabilities, with proper conditions and exceptions At the same time they say no member of the Ku Klux organization has ever justified his acts on the ground of continued imposition of political disabilities, but the Committee believe it wise to remove the alleged impediments to local government.

Judge Blake, in the Municipal Court to day, rendered an important decision in the case of Ah Kim convicted of perjury by swearing to a false complaint in the Police Court He holds that the defendant, in order to be liable on an indictment for perjury must have been sworn in advance and his statement put down in writing the mere swearing to complaint previously made, not constituting perjury under our laws. In this view of the case, he be granted motion in arrest of judgment and rendered the case as presented to the next grand jury

Carrie Stabley a beautiful and well educated woman, who left her husband and went on the town three years since dropped dead upon the street this afternoon, from the effects of poisoned whisky

Arrived—Hawaiian bark R W Wood

The following passengers living in Oregon and northwards, arrived overland this morning with the first installment of the snow blockade J M Richardson, C P Ferry, Bishop W Morris Mrs Mary Wright Portland Oliver Roland and wife Lewiston G H Hart Vancouver

SAN FRANCISCO Feb 19 —The Panama steamer to day carried a cargo valued at $100,800 and $145 000

Mr Baldridge a survivor of the famous Parker H French expedition across Texas and Mexico to California is to read a lecture on that subject soon

The arrival of the overland mail has been the event of the day, and principal topic of conversation on the streets The mails are being distributed very rapidly all the force at the command of Postmaster Stone being engaged The statements of passengers generally agree as to the pleasure of the trip The news dealers will all lose heavily—some of them thousands of dollars by the detention of their supplies which are now thrown upon them all in a lump

The police commenced a raid on the Chinese lottery dealers and arrested three to day The respectable Chinese merchants are anxious to have the business broken up characterizing it as a "hogging game" of the worst character

Bishop Morris and party of Oregon, who arrived here this noon 39 days from New York, will sail for Portland on the Idaho Wednesday

One of the snow bounders named Dunoughs who is said to have left New York a powerful man in full health was so worn down and exhausted when the train arrived to day it was found necessary to carry him to the Lick House in men's arms He appears to be in the last stages of consumption

There are now nine cases of small pox in the pest house and eight cases in town, some of the slight varioloid form and it is hoped the exertions of the Board of Health may result in soon quelling the disease

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES

Trial of the Los Angeles Rioters

LOS ANGELES Feb 18 —The trial of Crenshaw for murder was concluded last night The case is the first on the calendar of indictments growing out of the Chinese riot of October 24th The evidence which was conclusive as to the connection of the accused in taking an active part in the riot failed seemingly to establish the commission of a specific act of robbery or murder The jury were out twenty minutes and returned a verdict of guilty of manslaughter The prisoner will be sentenced Tuesday morning Counsel for defense gave notice of an appeal This trial may be regarded as a test case for all others some twenty in number

Nothing is more noticeable than the various changes which have been made in the method of handling iron in rolling mills during the last five years A few years ago our mills furnished all their iron in bars sheets rails or such shapes as were demanded by separate establishments Of late the iron manufacturers have added to their mills other branches of iron working which can be done by them at a much less cost than by those who were simply purchasers from the mills, and who lost considerable in the shape of scraps in working up the iron in various articles Said scrap was necessarily brought back to the mill again and sold at a greatly reduced rate Thus it will be seen that the rolling mill that finishes the iron direct into nuts bolts, horse shoes washers railroad chairs etc., possesses a great advantage in making these articles which are beginning to be viewed as a part of the rolling mill business Galvanizing sheet iron making gas pipe, strap hangings and many other things are now made by rolling mills with more profit to themselves and the public than by the old method Properly managed the finishing of iron into these and other articles cannot fail to prove profitable to the manufacturer

SHORT PARAGRAPHS

[illegible] in a recent [illegible] we learn that steam cultivating machinery is coming into very general use in England One large firm have been sending out from eight to ten plowing engines per week most of which are for use in districts where they can be hired by several different farmers

Archdeacon Pratt, by discussing the amount of precession in a globe with a molten nucleus finds conclusive evidence of Sir William Thompson's opinion that the earth is solid and that therefore volcanic eruptions are attributable to some other cause than the one popularly assigned His views is confirmed by numerous recent observations which indicate that the increase of temperature below the earth's surface soon reached a limit.

Electricity has achieved a new triumph Already employed to restore vigor and nimbleness to the gouty limbs [illegible] recounts the recent discoveries of Dr Bernier a French physician show electricity to be an efficient remedy for the evil effects of excessive drinking on the human nose The doctor maintains that by the application of an electric current to noses even of the most Bacchanalian hue the flesh may be made to come again as the flesh of a little child and he supports his assertion by a case performed on a female patient of his own a woman of high rank

The Lake Shore and Michigan Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company have commenced work of planting trees along the tracks of their road—11 000 chestnut and 10 000 European larches have been planted along its line between White Pigeon and Toledo through the country where the forests have been mostly cleared away and the supply of timber is scantiest The work was most excellently done, with the intention that every tree might live and the cost including the time of laborers who belong to the regular force of the road and did this work in connection with and in addition to their ordinary duties at an average of eight cents per tree excluding the cost of the company's employes the cost was four cents per tree

THE TERRITORIES

On board the bark Webfoot which arrived at Kalama on Wednesday last there was a locomotive for the Northern Pacific Railroad

Kalama is a favorite range for the vicious animal known as "ye tiger" from common report Two of the "critters" are now on exhibition there

The last report of the United States Land Commissioner states that Montana contains 23 000 000 acres of agricultural lands, 12 000,000 of timber lands and 79 000 000 acres of grazing lands

Contrary to the apprehension that at one time prevailed, but few cattle have died in Montana It is estimated that at least ten thousand cattle and horses died in Wyoming in the vicinity of Laramie

The Kalama Beacon of Friday last says A new surveying party is now organized, to make a preliminary survey from Kalama southward on the east side of the Columbia, who are reported to be at work to day Mr Buchanan will most probably be chief of the party, and the following are to be his assistants, viz G H Birnie, Transit, J A Fuller, Level, Norton Larrabee, Topographer, A L Lindsley, Rodman. This corps is composed mostly of Maxwell's old party, just down from the upper Columbia

SAMMY AND THE CAPTAIN —An illustration of the limited ideas of children, very closely like those of the savages who have repeatedly taken [illegible] man they saw for superhuman beings—is recorded in respect to a [illegible] who was

Captain or colonel or knight in arms

in one of the New England States One day, after a general training, the warrior found occasion to call in the house where our subject resided and, sheathed in his full panoply, he dismounted from his steed, marched up to the front door, and rung the bell It so chanced that our young friend opened the door, but as the overpowering vision of red and yellow, steel and feathers flashed upon him, he incontinently turned and ran up stairs to his mother

"Oh, mamma, there's somebody at the door"

"Who is it Sammy?"

"I don't know, mamma but I think it's God!"—"The Club Room" in Galaxy for January

We learn that the line of the railroad via Douglas county will probably be laid through Looking Glass Prairie This will carry it some miles west of Roseburg It is said to be an easier and more available route than any other that has been examined

THE WORK GOES BRAVELY ON —CASE No 6001—[illegible] SERIES

GUADALOUPE MINE, near San Jose, Aug 15 1871

DR A M LORYEA & Co —For a long time I have been afflicted with Rheumatism in my hands and feet the pains most of the time being very severe On the 7th of July I procured some of your UNK WEED REMEDY and after taking only three bottles find that I am quite restored to health and strength I have had the Rheumatism for eleven (11) years and think that the [illegible] of the UNK in curing a disease of so long standing, in so short a time, is very remarkable

As a tonic and appetizer I have never met with anything equal to the "UNK WEED REMEDY" During the time I was taking it I gained fifteen (15) pounds in weight Trusting that this certificate may be useful in inducing others affected as I was to try the UNK

I remain very truly yours,

REMOVAL NOTICE

[illegible] The OREGONIAN will be re[illegible] to the [illegible] Stark [illegible]

THE [illegible] We stated yesterday in [illegible] that the [illegible] road was broken beyond [illegible] the undermining of an embankment We [illegible] since learned that a repairing force was [illegible] and that news was received last [illegible] from these men to the effect that the track [illegible] be in running condition by this morning [illegible] track across the bottom land this side of O[illegible] city is however, under water and the train[illegible] only run to and from Oregon City In [illegible]quence of this passengers will be carrie[illegible] steamer between Oregon City and Portland [illegible]patches were received yesterday from se[illegible] points up the valley in relation to the r[illegible] the damages [illegible] The Harrisburg bridge [illegible] which here was some anxiety is all right [illegible] gravel was washed out of a couple of the [illegible]ments and some drift had lodged against [illegible] piers but the structure stands securely and [illegible] is now no apprehension in regard to its sa[illegible] The Santiam bridge received greater dam[illegible] One of the bents was broken by a heavy ra[illegible] drift and the gravel was washed out of one [illegible] cribs The danger is however passed in re[illegible] to both bridges and workmen were yesterday [illegible]gaged in making repairs, but it will probabl[illegible] several days before trains can run beyond [illegible] It was reported last evening that [illegible] river was still rising at Corvallis and Alb[illegible] but the Santiam had fallen several feet

DAMAGED AN[illegible] —The tremen[illegible] rain shower of Sunday morning played havoc [illegible] the streets in many places The floods of w[illegible] greater in volume than the drains could get [illegible] with ran over the streets cutting new gu[illegible] without the least regard to the ordinances [illegible] lishing grades, or the stakes stuck by the [illegible]veyor to mark curb lines We notice that [illegible] of the streets are cut in two in numerous p[illegible] by cross gutters, chasms that are entirely [illegible]passable for horses or vehicles In a numbe[illegible] places the street filling is carried away and [illegible]posited in mud flats at street intersections in [illegible] lower half of the city It will take a consi[illegible]ble time after the weather shall get settle[illegible] make everything as good as new again and [illegible] expense of doing it will be no trifling matter

BENEFIT TO A MUSICIAN —It is to be hoped [illegible] liberal public will respond handsomely [illegible]ght to the effort of some of our leading mu[illegible] to give a substantial benefit to Profe[illegible] George P Newall the pioneer music teacher [illegible] have heretofore given the names of a suffic[illegible] number of the volunteers in this concert to sat[illegible] the public as to the quality of the entertainm[illegible] which they are invited A number of the [illegible] performers in the city are engaged in it [illegible] programme is as choice as any that has la[illegible] been offered The concert will take place at [illegible] Baptist Church corner of Alder and Fo[illegible] streets commencing at 8 o'clock

ACQUITTED —J M Murphy, late local repo[illegible] of the Herald, was tried yesterday in the Cr[illegible] Court on the charge of assault with a dange[illegible] weapon and was acquitted, the jury [illegible] only a few minutes The proofs adduced by [illegible] prosecution satisfied the jury that the discha[illegible] of a pistol by Mr Murphy the fact upon wh[illegible] the indictment was based—was accidental, [illegible] that, though the ball, after passing through [illegible] finger, passed through the clothing of a [illegible] man standing on the sidewalk, the shot [illegible] merely a random one

LECTURE ON GEOLOGY —"The fossil horse [illegible] as in the records of the past, and the theo[illegible] of the present"—this will be the subject of a [illegible] interesting and instructive lecture to be give[illegible] Rev Thomas Condon, in the public hall of [illegible] Masonic Temple, about the 8th prox The lec[illegible] will be abundantly illustrated from fossil sp[illegible] mens obtained during the past year Portl[illegible] have the highest appreciation of Mr Cond[illegible] ability to interest an audience on the subjec[illegible] geology, and will not fail to give him a crow[illegible] house

NOT VERY MATERIAL —We find that in ou[illegible] report of Friday's session of the Council we m[illegible] omission of a few words of the resolu[illegible] adopted in regard to the [illegible] of va[illegible] the foot of any street The omission did not [illegible]rially affect the [illegible] of the resolution, bu[illegible] the matter is brought to our notice by a Coun[illegible] man, we cheerfully make the [illegible] resolution should have read, This Council reco[illegible] the city the right to grant leave, etc., inst[illegible] "This Council will grant leave," etc

The Daily Oregonian.

TUESDAY MORNING FEBRUARY 20, 1872

REMOVAL NOTICE.

On Tuesday Feb 20th The Oregonian will be removed to the new office on the south east corner of Front and Stark streets

The Flood —We stated yesterday morning that the railroad was broken beyond Salem by the undermining of an embankment We have since learned that a repairing force was at once sent up and that news was received last evening from these men to the effect that the track would be in running condition by this morning The track across the bottom land this side of Oregon city is however under water and the trains can only run to and from Oregon City In consequence of this, passengers will be carried by steamer between Oregon City and Portland Dispatches were received yesterday from several points up the valley in relation to the river and the damages done The Harrisburg bridge, about which there was some anxiety is all right The gravel was washed out of a couple of the abutments and some drift had lodged against the piers but the structure stands securely, and there is now no apprehension in regard to its safety The Santiam bridge received greater damage One of the bents was broken by a heavy raft of drift, and the gravel was washed out of one of the cribs. The danger is however passed in regard to both bridges, and workmen were yesterday engaged in making repairs, but it will probably be several days before trains can run beyond Jefferson. It was reported last evening that the river was still rising at Corvallis and Albany but the Santiam had fallen several feet

Damaged and Dilapidated —The tremendous rain shower of Sunday morning, played havoc with the streets in many places The floods of water, greater in volume than the drains could get away with, ran over the streets, cutting new gutters without regard to the ordinances establishing grades or the stakes stuck by the Surveyor to mark the same We notice that some of the streets are cut in two in numerous places by areas that are entirely impassable for vehicles. In a number of places, the street filling is carried away and deposited in mud flats at street intersections in the lower half of the city It will take a considerable time after the weather shall get settled, to make everything as good as new again, and the expense of doing it will be no trifling matter

Benefit to a Musician —It is to be hoped that our liberal public will respond handsomely to night to the effort of some of our leading musical talent to give a substantial benefit to Professor P. Newell, the pioneer music teacher. We have twice given the names of a sufficient number of the volunteers in this concert to satisfy the public as to the quality of the entertainment to which they are invited A number of the very best in the city are engaged in it, and the programme is as choice as any that has lately been offered. The concert will take place at the Baptist Church, corner of Alder and Fourth streets commencing at 8 o'clock.

Acquitted —J M Murphy, late local reporter of the Herald, was tried yesterday in the Circuit Court on the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon and was acquitted, the jury being out only a few minutes The proofs adduced by the defense satisfied the jury that the discharge of a pistol by Mr. Murphy the fact upon which the charge was based was accidental, and that the ball, after passing through his own finger, passed through the clothing of a woman walking on the sidewalk, the shot was Lecture on Geology —"The fossil horse, his place in the records of the past, and the theories of the —this will be the subject of a most and instructive lecture to be given by Rev. Condon, in the public hall of the about the 5th prox. The lecture will be illustrated from fossil specimens during the past year Portland has the appreciation of Mr Condon's ability on the subject of geology, and will not fail to give him a crowded house.

Not Very Material.—We find that in our report of Friday's session of the Council we made an of a few words of the resolution adopted in regard to the of vacating the foot of any street The omission did not materially affect the of the resolution, but as the is brought to our notice by a Council man, we fully make the correction. The resolution should have read, This Council reserves to the city the right to grant leave, etc, instead of "This City will grant leave," etc

The Medical Reporter.—The second number of this periodical is at hand, and it is one of the neatest things of the kind ever published here, being printed on book paper and in very clear type. We are informed that over six hundred copies of each issue are sold to merchants and of this city for distribution abroad Over one hundred copies are sent to England and the rest being distributed in California, the Sandwich Islands, British Columbia and the Eastern States

New Postoffices —We learn from our Postmaster that the following new Postoffices have been recently established Kl-ahanine, Columbia county, Fair Grounds, Marion county, Norton, county; Summer House, Clatsop county, Coos county, Hot Springs, Jackson county, Valley, Jackson county, Linkville, Jackson county, Yanax, Jackson county, Washington county; Woodburn, Marion county.

Cut off Again.—The inconvenience to man of being mail facilities don't seem to trouble the clerk of the weather very much He cut us off by snow and ice for a while, and now we are as poor in regard of mails as an honest man in the of sole, in consequence of too much rain and sudden thaw In this state of destitution and forlorn the have but one consolation, and that is that "whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth."

Bishop Morris —A private dispatch from Bishop Morris, received last evening announces his safe arrival in San Francisco He will leave for Portland on the next trip of the Idaho

Steamers to Sail —The steamship Oriflamme will sail for San Francisco at 4 o clock P M to day It is expected that the Idaho will sail from San Francisco for this port to day

Had a Fit —The man J Hoppy, indicted for rape, was taken up to the court room yesterday morning to plead for his indictment, and while there, he fell in a fit of some sort

AMUSEMENTS.

Oro Fino Theater —The drama of "Rosedale" is still an immense attraction and will be continued till further notice

The Comique —A new company opened this place last night with the sensational burlesque of Paris by Gaslight and a variety bill

Good Templar's Entertainment —The following is the programme of the entertainment to be given at Multnomah Hall this evening

1 Song, We Merrily—Full Chorus
2 Duet and Chorus—The Child's Pleading
3 Tableaux—Two is Company Three is None
4 Quartette —Come where my love lies Dreaming
5 Reading—Burial of Little Nell
6 Duet—Larboard Watch
7 Tableau—Amy and Nannie
8 Song and Chorus—Pictures on the Wall
9 Reading—From Widow Bedott
10 Duet—Where the Warbling Waters Flow
11 Tableau Bottle and Pledge five scenes
12 Quartette—I'm Charming
13 Dialogue—Thirty Minutes for Refreshments, in one act.
14. Full Chorus—Rally Round the Standard

If the above in point of quantity and quality is not sufficient to satisfy every one who has 25 cents to spare then we think such people are hard to please We hope the public will patronize this entertainment as the object is a worthy one—the building of a Good Templar's Hall

Four Millions of Invalids

At the lowest computation there are never less than four millions of invalids in the United States Of this number probably more than three-fifths have neglected the ordinary precautions necessary for the preservation of health, and are suffering the punishment due to their carelessness If the multitudes who are now afflicted with biliousness indigestion rheumatism intermittent fever, irregularity of the bowels, general debility nervous disorders, &c, had at the very first symptoms of indisposition invigorated, regulated and purified their systems with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters two-thirds of them would at this moment be performing the active duties of life unannoyed by any ailment of the body or the mind

This assertion is made advisedly It is founded on experience, and is borne out by the testimony of a countless host of witnesses whose attestations cover almost every variety of disease, and extend over a period of about twenty years. Of every thousand persons who take the Bitters as a preventive of the complaints above on the rated seven eighths escape them entirely and of every thousand who are actually attacked and use the great Vegetable Tonic as a remedy three-fourths are radically cured These are not hap-hazard assertions but statistical facts They are based upon the results of inquiries made by more than fifty thousand persons in various parts of the country and upon the letters of prominent citizens of every State it might almost be said of every county in the Union

LITTLE HOMES!

WE HAVE OBTAINED MANY TESTIMONIALS, which appear in the Weekly Oregonian for the purpose of answering once for all the many inquiries in relation to our LITTLE HOMES. We desire to show to strangers, through men of known integrity in this community that they are all we claim for them—cheap at present prices, and the speculation in them lies in the future growth of Portland in the building of Railroads, and Bridges over the Willamette—which is merely a question of time—and in the fact that in less than one mile distant City Blocks (200 feet square) are selling from two to three thousand dollars, and in less than two-and-a-half miles (on a direct line) at per acre for land, and 2¼ miles distant, $200 000 per acre! New York city is over twenty miles in length and six miles wide and many other cities in the United States are half that long, and quite as wide and if Portland becomes a metropolis she will require this land for business purposes Thirty years ago we could have purchased a section of land where the business portion of Chicago now stands for $10 per acre—$50 for a five acre tract Thirty years ago we could have purchased the town site of Portland for a Cayuse pony—but we didn't have the pony! Twenty years ago a solitary individual with neither money nor friends found himself in Portland without a red He purchased a basket on tick and filled it with oranges on the same terms, and went to peddling. Twenty long eventful years have since elapsed. Still that sturdy old pioneer has stuck to Portland and worked his way through thick and thin; and now where do you think he is!—in the poor house, and owes for the basket! But to our

Promotion of Maritime Interests

A few days ago Secretary Boutwell presented a bill before the House Committee of Commerce at Washington embodying his suggestions for aiding the maritime interests of the United States. The Secretary of the Navy also urged the measure. The chief features of the bill are these:

It authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to offer a bounty of not more than $18 per ton to be paid each year, for a period of five years, for the construction in the United States, of iron steamships of not less than 1,000 tons each, the bounties to be paid not to exceed $500,000 in the aggregate, nor for more than 100,000 tons in any one year, the vessels to be employed exclusively in foreign trade. Also to give public notice that proposals will be received for the constructions of 50,000 tons upon the Atlantic coast, 25,000 tons upon the Great Lakes and Mississippi river, and 25,000 tons upon the Pacific Coast. The vessels shall be first-class, and shall be constructed after such plans models and specifications as have been first approved by the Bureau of Construction and Repairs of the Navy Department, and the Government may at any time hereafter purchase such vessels, if it require them, to carry mails between the United States and foreign countries, payment to be made therefor at such sums as shall be ascertained and determined by five disinterested persons, three of whom shall be appointed by the President of the United States, and two by the owners of the vessel; and the Secretary of the Navy may detail any officer of the navy, not above the rank of Lieutenant, to serve as second officer, or of officer of inquiry, on board any vessel that may be built under the authority of the act, and upon the request of the owner of any such vessel, he may detail an officer of the navy to serve as commanding officer, if consistent with the public interest.

There shall also be allowed and paid, under such regulations as shall be established by the Secretary of the Treasury, upon any first class sailing vessel of not less than 400 tons burthen, hereafter launched and finished, to be employed only in foreign trade, including trade between Atlantic and Pacific ports, a sum of $8 for each and every ton of registered tonnage.

There shall also be allowed and paid, under such regulations as shall be established by the Secretary of the Treasury, upon every first class sailing vessel of not less than 200 tons burthen, hereafter launched and [illegible] had, and authorized to engage more than three months in one year in the coasting trade of the United States, a sum of $6 for each ton of registered tonnage.

If the owner of any vessel on which a [illegible] ty shall have been paid, shall desire to [illegible] such vessel enrolled and [illegible] for the coasting trade, such authority may be [illegible] by the Secretary of the Treasury upon repayment of the amount originally paid by the Government, after making a deduction of 10 per cent. for each year that such vessel may have been in service, provided that at least 50 per cent. on the originally paid amount be refunded.

For a period of five years there shall be allowed and paid to any owner or owners of any vessel eng[illegible] in the cod or mackerel fishery upon the Atlantic ocean, or its coast, the sum of $6 per ton, provided that no payment shall be made on account of any v[illegible] that has not been so employed for at least four months of the calendar year.

Vessels of the United States employed in foreign trade or in the fisheries, may purchase ship stores, supplies and outfit, not including articles for the repair or running of such vessels, in bond and [illegible] of duties, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Assumptions of the Democracy.

[From the Albany Register.]

The assumption of the Democracy of to-day is without precedence in the history of American politics. Its claims to public confidence are as brazen in their effrontery as they are insulting in their presumption. With more cheek than [illegible], and more impertinence than prudence, it assumes a part in the drama of politics for which it has no special adaptation, and for which its recent history can furnish no other [illegible]timony than that of contradiction; and presuming on the ignorance or forgetfulness of the people, it flaunts its pretensions upon the political stage, and expects to be received into public confidence. Is it possible that Democracy has become so infatuated with its own follies and sins as to regard them as virtues worthy of public [illegible], or does it [illegible] of [illegible] intelligence and virtue so low as to presume upon its ability to mislead the people? While the past history of the Democratic party is full of mistakes and crimes; while contradictions and errors of the most disastrous character to itself and the nation are still seen in their effects upon every hand; while the people in Oregon and California are suffering from the fruits of unjust and criminal legislation, enacted to satiate the greed of dishonest legislators and their particular supporters and friends, how can it have the brazen assumption to set up the claims for public favor that it does? One would think that it would hide its head for very shame; but no, in the exuberance of its supreme impudence and depravity, [illegible] because impenitent, cruel because [illegible], it arrogates all it has lost, the principles of a Jefferson, the integrity of a Jackson, the fervor of a Douglas, the consistency of a Stephens—and that, too, while new departures, and passive schemes, and litigant bills, and swamp land swindles, and Tammany frauds, and general demoralization stares it in the face like so many reproving ghosts—and asks to be elevated to power that it may bring about a reformation in the affairs of the nation! Is not such assumption without precedence? "Armies and armies of Democrats," as Pomeroy says, trying to reach "fat offices and fat stealings" under the specious guise of reformers. Democracy must be renewed in the spirit of its mind, become a "new creature," be entirely transformed, reconstructed throughout, in nature and practice, before it can hope to command any respect in the character of a reformer. As the matter stands now the assumption excites no greater emotion than that of indignant contempt in the minds of all sensible people.

International Currency

[From the Victoria Colonist.]

It is now nearly four years since a very able letter from the pen of Alexander C. Anderson, Esq., of Rosebank, was published in these columns. We have before us a copy of the Montreal Daily News in which that letter is re-published, accompanied by a leading article in which the letter is eulogised, and the subject of a universal uniform currency and a uniform coinage for the Dominion of Canada is well advocated. Our immediate object is less to acknowledge the deserved honor thus done to a respected member of this community than to express surprise that Great Britain, usually the leader in great national reforms, should be found lagging behind in respect of a movement of such momentous importance to civilization and commerce. Surely it is most becoming that Britannia should take the lead in this world-wide reform. The sun never sets on her flag. Her morning drum is ever beating. Her sails whiten every sea. Her hardy and adventurous sons are to be found in every clime. And yet, if she does not look well to her laurels, she will have to follow the lead of the United States, or some other country in the matter of uniform coinage for the world. Let Britannia arouse herself and carry out to a successful consummation a scheme for which the nations are ripe, and from which she has more to gain than any other. The want of such a measure is keenly felt here. It is felt everywhere. Arise, Britannia, and act well thy fitting part.

THE BEST HAVE THEIR FAILINGS.—A painter was once engaged upon a likeness of Alexander the Great. In one of his great battles Alexander had received an ugly scar on the side of his face. The artist was desirous of giving a correct likeness of the monarch, and, at the same time, desirous of hiding the scar. It was a difficult task to accomplish. At length he hit upon a happy expedient. He painted him in a reflective attitude, his hand placed against his head while his finger covered the scar. The best men are not without their failings, their scars—but do not dwell upon them. In speaking of them to others, adopt the painter's expedient, and let the finger of love be placed on the scar.

The steamship Oriflamme leaves to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock for San Francisco.

The bark Metis commenced receiving cargo of Wheat to-day for Cork.

Information from a reliable source reaches us that the bark Harrington when last seen was under sail and all right.

The steamboat E. N Cooke will run in connection with the railroad at Oregon City, until after the river recedes, making her first trip to-morrow.

No boat arrived from or was dispatched, so far as we could learn, to Oregon City to-day.

The following table gives the entrances and clearances of British vessels at this port for 1871. Vessels of other nationalities will be given hereafter:

In the other departments of the OREGONIAN mention has been made at different times of the interest displayed by Major [illegible], Chief Engineer of the U. S. A. in this District, in having the obstructions removed from our rivers, principally from the Columbia—by appropriation of Congress. That his efforts are meeting with entire [illegible] from the commercial community as well as all the producers in this State and the adjoining Territory of Washington, is well known to all who have informed themselves regarding the matter. The last recommendation made by Major Robert is an appropriation for removing the principal obstructions from the Upper Columbia. This report went forward last month to the War Department at Washington and from a copy shown us cannot but meet the approval of the Department, which will materially aid in obtaining the desired amount—$40,000 in Legal Tenders. Next to having all obstructions on the Lower Columbia and Lower Willamette removed, so as allow easy passage up and down the river to and from Portland for the [illegible] ocean [illegible], that of having removed the obstructions on the Upper Columbia is the most important. Eastern Oregon and Western [illegible] Territory, together with that part of [illegible] up rapidly and owing to these [illegible] the upper Columbia navigation [illegible] to [illegible] and other points above Celilo, is [illegible] with great risk and danger, causing high [illegible] to be exacted by the [illegible] of the river. As a commerce [illegible] importance to have the river freed of the [illegible] obstructions now rendering navigation [illegible]. As a military or national [illegible], taking into [illegible] our rapid growth east of the C[illegible], it is also of the utmost importance. Major Robert's report and [illegible] show very close study with an intimate knowledge of what is required and a very general desire to [illegible] and develope, by all [illegible] in his power, our great [illegible]; and nothing can so thoroughly aid us in making the Columbia river navigable with greater ease to steamboats on the Upper Columbia, and above all by [illegible] all obstructions in the river from here to its mouth that render it in the least impracticable for deep [illegible] to pass up and down with ease. The recommendations for the removal of all [illegible] from here to the mouth of the Columbia were received by the Department, and in furtherance of that object the bar at St. Helens is being surveyed, and other things of a similar nature being done, but the answer to Major Robert's report on the obstructions in the Upper Columbia together with estimated cost of [illegible] has not yet been received, but it is safe to say, from the disposition heretofore shown, that it will meet with favor [illegible] that the sum asked for is [illegible] $40,000 [illegible], and $12,000 to remove the principal rocks at Devil's Bend rapids and also the Umatilla rapids. These obstructions removed will add largely to our [illegible] trade, and will be of great benefit to all that section of country lying east of the C[illegible]. It is hardly necessary for us to call the attention of [illegible] Corbett to the necessity of using all his influence, and by all honorable [illegible] trying to secure all the appropriation desired, for he has shown himself keenly alive to all our commercial interests, but the other two [illegible] Kelly and Con[illegible] Slater [illegible] not better [illegible] in the prosperity of the State and the commercial interests of this city and the country east of the mountains, than to urge the immediate appropriation of the amount specified.

Produce Market.

WHEAT—The San Francisco Commercial Herald in its last [illegible] Feb. [illegible] 9th—says: "[illegible] has been steadily [illegible] Wheat [illegible] during the current [illegible], but within the past few days buyers have been forced to withdraw, [illegible] to the advanced rates demanded. The [illegible] now on the Liverpool berth will have dispatch; but the [illegible] shipments to the United Kingdom is thought to be waning, and the few English orders yet here [illegible] cannot now be filled within limits, even at the recent decline in freights. There is, however, plenty of Grain in the country, could it only be reached. Fa[illegible] are too busy planting to give heed to carrying Grain to market at [illegible], besides hoping for some improvement in prices before harvest." Our market is dull. Shippers are inclined to lower offers hereabouts.

FLOUR—Advices from San Francisco state that the market is much depressed, with a heavy stock of Oregon Extra here and to arrive and is for sale as occasion offers to the local trade, there being at date no export demand for it. Our millers are carrying light stocks of both Wheat and Flour, and are not expected to do much until the Valparaiso, now on the berth for Hongkong, in Mc[illegible]'s line, begins to take in cargo in a week hence. Their superfine [illegible] will be [illegible] for at low rates." Private advices inform us of the [illegible] of the Golden Age Mills. liabilities $45,000. B. F. DOWELL,

Attorney at Law,

OF JACKSONVILLE, OREGON

WILL SPEND THIS WINTER IN WASHINGton, D. C., as agent for procuring bounties, pensions, arrears of pay, prize money, pay for horses, steamboats and other property lost or destroyed while in the service of the United States, or in the Oregon and Washington Territories in 1855-6, or California Indian wars, and Quartermaster's stores or subsistence supplies taken for the army; and for the prosecution of claims of all kinds against the United States. Ordnance and Quartermaster's accounts adjusted, and certificates of non-indebtedness procured for discharged officers.

I will be pleased to correspond with those who are engaged, or desire to engage in obtaining such claims, and and also their claims against the United States. I will send them all necessary forms and instructions, and keep them advised of all laws and decisions relating to claims, and my fees on such claims will be but one-half the fees charged claimants.

I refer to members of Congress, officers of the Government, and others who have resided in Oregon or Washington during the last twenty years.
